

Dear Admissions Committee,

My name is Asmamaw Tamiru. I am writing this letter to express my strong interest in the Economics course at the University of Polytechnic Marche. As a highly motivated and academically-driven individual, I am excited to apply to this esteemed institution to further my education and achieve my career goals.

From a young age, I have always been fascinated by economics, particularly the way it impacts society and the world we live in. Through my research, I discovered that the University of Polytechnic Marche is known for its excellent reputation in the field of economics, which is why I am drawn to this program.

I have a strong academic background in economics, having completed my high school education with outstanding grades. My passion for economics has only grown since then, and I have spent my free time reading books and attending lectures on the subject. I have also participated in several economics competitions, where I have honed my analytical and critical thinking skills.

I believe that studying economics at the University of Polytechnic Marche will enable me to expand my knowledge in the field and acquire the necessary skills to make a meaningful impact in the world.

Moreover, the University of Polytechnic Marche's commitment to fostering an environment that promotes academic excellence, personal growth, and social responsibility aligns with my values and aspirations. I am excited about the opportunities the university offers, including internships, research opportunities, and the chance to interact with other students from diverse backgrounds.

In conclusion, I am eager to join the Economics course at the University of Polytechnic Marche and contribute to the academic and social community. Thank you for considering my application, and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Sincerely

Asmamaw Tamiru
