

Dear Admissions Committee:

My name is Michael Yeshitila Tefera. I'm writing to express my fervent interest in the Economics and Data Science programme at the University of Cassino for the 2023–2024 academic year. Because I think this degree will give me the skills and information I need to greatly advance the field of digital economics, I am tremendously motivated to finish it.

I want to work in the fields of data science and economics because I love technology and innovation and have a background in economics. I find it intriguing how technology is changing how businesses operate and opening up new markets, and I am confident that this program will provide me the knowledge and abilities I need to research and comprehend these advancements.

I am interested in the University of Cassino because of its well-known reputation for academic quality and because it places a strong emphasis on innovation and entrepreneurship. The idea of working with others who share my love for digital economics and learning from leading authorities in the field excites me.

I have constantly shown a good work ethic, attention to detail, and a readiness to pick up new abilities and adjust to new difficulties throughout my academic and professional path. I am sure that I have the skills and character traits required to finish this program successfully and give back to the Cassino community.

I appreciate your taking a look at my application. I anxiously await the opportunity to discuss my qualifications in more depth.
