To Whom It May Concern:

It is a great pleasure that I recommend Yared Yimenu Bekele for admission to your school. He is an outstanding student in an extremely able class of students. In the years of working with Yared, he has demonstrated the academic and social skills needed to succeed in a comparative atmosphere.

Academically, he is an intelligent individual. He exhibits dedication and vigor in all that he approaches. He is that one student listening curiously and who is always raising their hand to answer every question. He is very active in class.

Regarding activities, there is no one like Yared in our school. He is an active member of various clubs. He is especially known for his active activity in charity club. He always brings positive energy to our school community. His leadership skills come to the forefront not only in charity club but also in group projects too, where he took charge, being responsible for the majority of the work, ensuring everything is on time and flawlessly completed.

Yared will speak up to express what he believes is right in a proper manner. He will never keep his voice unheard. Instead he would confidently speak his mind. I know for sure that Yared will be the most influential man in the world in a few years if he keeps up like this, which I am sure, he will.

Yared is a confident, dedicated, curious and warm-hearted leader who has a charismatic personality. He is more than ready to be at your major university. Because looking at the resource he had, he certainly has made the best of it. If you can allow him to learn at your school, he will, without a doubt, impress us all.

If you have any questions regarding Yared, Please don't hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

YEWODROS TILAHUN
