

Dear Admission Board,

I am writing to convey my intense interest in the University of Cassino on Economics and Data Science course for the 2023–2024 academic year. I am extremely driven to complete this degree because I believe it will provide me with the abilities and knowledge I need to significantly advance the subject of digital economics.

My passion for technology and innovation, combined with my background in economics, has inspired me to pursue a career in the field of Economics and Data Science. I find it fascinating how technology is transforming business operations and creating new markets, and I believe this program will equip me with the necessary skills to study and understand these developments.

The University of Cassino has caught my attention due to its renowned reputation for academic excellence, as well as its emphasis on innovation and entrepreneurship. I am excited about the prospect of collaborating with like-minded individuals who share my enthusiasm for digital economics and learning from top experts in the industry.

Throughout my academic and professional journey, I have consistently demonstrated a strong work ethic, attention to detail, and a willingness to acquire new skills and adapt to new challenges. I am confident that I possess the abilities and qualities necessary to succeed in this program and make meaningful contributions to the University of Cassino community.

Thank you for considering my application. I eagerly look forward to the opportunity to provide further details about my qualifications.

Sincerely,

MATHIAS YENENEW
